

Wauwatosa House, Wauwatosa, Windsor 17 Apr 1882

Dear Andrew,

C.4/C.133
I purposely delayed answering your last letter until I should find myself in a position to discharge the pecuniary part of the heavy debt of gratitude I owe you. I find I cannot do so & therefore no longer procrastinate.

Enclosed you will find the fulfilment of a very old promise in the shape of my photo.
It is a pretty good one though taken at a time when I was greatly harassed by trouble.
Any how, I know that you

"Woud view it ² with a Critic's Eye?" I send a Copy for Milton, which please hand to him with my love & reproaches for having left me without a line for 11 months - I am having copies taken for Burn & Wey, to whom my filial regards,

As to news. I have but little - "Shop" of course comes first. I'm still very busy, - busier than ever, with very little so leisure - I have had some hopes of getting the rules & admn. here altered & both the C. & F.
& Higginbotham have promised to assist, but my hopes were fainter & fainter - At the present moment I am in Active Party³ for the management of the premier office in Sydney, Allen & Allen - They offer good terms if matters can be settled I shall bid adieu to Victoria in August.

You can imagine better than I can describe the reluctance with which I have arrived at this determination as it necessarily involved the relinquishment of the fondly cherished scheme of our co-union, but I cannot wait much longer, for it is no use continuing "with diurnal "drudgeries overwrought" & I must do something to better my position. Of course the associations may fall through, but ✓ if they do⁴ not I shall be Enabled to Considerably better my position & to also provide for my relations I shall write you again shortly as to the progress of this matter.

We are all well & pretty comfortable & send our kindest regards to you & Mrs Clark.

I had a very pleasant series of out-door excursions at Easter, chief of which was a walk to Doncaster & back (30 miles) with Theodore Link (brother of "The" Link) who is one of the best read men in Melbourne & a fine hearted fellow to boot.

I was Enabled to give my sisters a 6 weeks holiday at Christmas when she paid a visit to our old friend Mrs Wilmore (née Julia Richardson) - She was much benefitted by the change.

I am still in low funds - My brother has almost entirely failed to keep his promise of assistance & in consequence I am nearly always short of the money, and it takes all my earnings to keep up this household - In fact, I am no better off than I was 12 months ago - I think that under these circumstances you will reluctantly agree in the course I propose to adopt

6

- My humble ventures in mining have resulted in failures owing to my being unable to hold them. I thought that you might have referred to the mysterious Telegram you sent me some months back as to "Oriente," but I suppose the subject escaped your notice.

We are expecting ~~now~~ a visitor here in the person of Miss Dodds who intends coming to reside in Meib. about the end of this month.

My life goes on in very much the quiet way which I described in my last & at times I experience fits of deep despondency

Which cause me to take very melancholy views. I will not trouble you with these thoughts as I may yet rise superior to my reverses & I am very far from losing hope.

I have had 2 letters lately from C. P. F. who had Entered into partnership with W. L. Murdoch at Coosamundra, N. S. Wales. I am afraid his excessive habits forbid his friends from Entertaining sanguine views of his future.

I cannot report favourably in reply to your kind Enquiries as to "The Cause" "of true love." My happiness is very far from being assured in that respect, but I do not despair—~~even in this respect.~~

I have no more to say as to myself. I send you my unchanging & affectionate regards & shall eagerly await the receipt of your next letter. I trust that your path through life continues to be smooth & pleasant & that it may ever be so.

Fare well, for the present, to yours ever affectionately A. Clark
